

Would you like to work at the German Parliament?

The German Bundestag

invites you,
in cooperation with the
Freie Universität Berlin,
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin,
and Technische Universität Berlin, to apply for an

International Parliamentary Scholarship (IPS)

to spend five months in Berlin

The IPS program is aimed at highly qualified young men and women who are interested in politics and who wish to play an active and responsible role in shaping the democratic future of their country.

The German Bundestag, the German Parliament, offers young people the opportunity to get to know the German parliamentary system and political decision-making processes and to gain practical experience of parliamentary work during a 15-week work placement with a Member of the Bundestag.

The scholarship-winners are chosen by the German Bundestag's independent selection panel.

Requirements:

- US citizenship
- University degree
- Very good knowledge of German
- Under the age of 30 at the start of the scholarship

Scholarship:

- 450 euros per month
- Free accommodation
- Insurance and travel expenses

Deadline for applications: June 30

Additional information is available on the reverse, from the German Embassy, or online at www.bundestag.de/ips.
