German Bundestag

A warm welcome to the German Bundestag's 13th Open Day

The Bundestag is opening its doors again for its 13th Open Day. Be our guest and find out how Parliament works, learn about its committees and the parliamentary groups, as well as what a typical working day is like for the Members and the Bundestag administration. There's a wide programme of activities in store. Meet Bundestag Members and employees, and explore the full spectrum of parliamentary work via a range of interactive sessions and multimedia presentations. Visit the Reichstag Building and take a look at the plenary chamber. Stop past the Paul Löbe and Marie-Elisabeth Lüders Buildings and soak up the modern architecture and atmosphere. Musical cafés offer the ideal place for a moment's pause, while our younger guests can look forward to an exciting children's area.

Entry is free of charge.
